TIPS FOR INTERACTING WITH PANHANDLERS

- Don't give money to panhandlers.
Aggressive panhandling will stop when people stop rewarding such behavior – it's that simple.
- Acknowledge a panhandler with a nod, and answer the request for money by saying a plain NO. Don't allow a panhandler to engage you in conversation; after saying NO, just walk away.
- Walk with confidence and don't be intimidated – the streets of Kansas City belong to all of us.
- Call the police if you feel threatened or harassed in any way; aggressive panhandling is illegal in Kansas City, Missouri.
- REMEMBER: Food, shelter, clothing, counseling, medical and job assistance are available for all who wish to receive these services.

Report aggressive panhandlers to:

EMERGENCY RESOURCE GUIDE

Real Change vs. Spare Change

Charity and concern for homeless people are wonderful things. But a quarter here and a dime there can add to little more than a life of continued dysfunction and social isolation.

Your spare change may actually be hurting a person in need by enabling him or her to delay seeking meaningful treatment and help.

Give Where It Counts!

Please consider helping the homeless by making a donation to one or more of the organizations (see inside) that provide a wide array of services to people in need.
